1.02 Interpretation

In the interpretation of this Constitution, words in the singular include the plural and vice-verse, words in one gender include all genders, and “person” includes an individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, unincorporated organization, trust and body corporate.

1.03 Invalidity of any Provisions of this Constitution

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Constitution shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Constitution.

To the extent that any amendment to the Act results in a conflict between a provision of this Constitution and a provision of the Act, the directors shall amend this Constitution to make such a conflicting provision conform with the Act.

1.04 Exclusive Responsibility

Any topic not covered by the Constitution, bylaws, or policy shall remain the exclusive responsibility of the Authority.

1.05 Name

The Thomson Lake Regional Park Authority will maintain a registered office in Thomson Lake Regional Park, Province of Saskatchewan.

1.06 Objectives

The objectives of the Authority are:

- promote and ensure, wherever possible, safe recreation in a natural setting;
- provide a fulfilling experience to patrons at an appropriate cost; and
- encourage the appreciation of the use of Thomson Lake Regional Park.

1.07 Jurisdiction

The Authority has jurisdiction over Thomson Lake Regional Park in all matters relating to the regional park.

1.08 Financial Year-end

The financial year of the Authority shall be fixed as the period from and including the 1st day of January in each calendar year to and including the 31st day of December in the same calendar year.

1.09 Finance

- All revenues must be deposited in the name of the Authority in a recognized banking institution or a credit union, and those moneys must only be expended pursuant to a resolution of the Authority.
- Signatories of all cheques and official documents of the Authority shall be the chairperson or vice-chairperson and park operations manager or park administrator.
- For the purpose of carrying out its objectives, the membership of the Authority may borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money, in such a manner as it deems fit, but none of these options shall be exercised without a resolution of the members.
- Signing authorities of the Authority are to be bonded in an amount determined by the Authority.

1.10 Resolutions in Writing

- A resolution in writing signed by all the members entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Authority is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Authority.
- A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Executive Committee, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee.

1.11 Rules of Order

The rules contained in "Robert's Rules of Order" shall govern all meetings of the Authority and the Executive Committee unless they are inconsistent with the Act or this Constitution.

1.12 Indemnification

The Authority shall indemnify and save harmless the members in the event of legal proceedings against such members in the performance of their duties except where liability incurred relates to such members failing to act honestly and in good faith with the view to the best interests of the Authority.

SECTION 2: Thomson Lake Regional Park Authority Directors

2.01 Directors of the Thomson Lake Regional Park Authority

- The Authority shall consist of a representative from each participating municipality and members-at-large.
- The number of member-at-large directors shall not exceed 40% of the total number of directors.
- Example: An authority with five (5) municipal representatives is allowed up to three (3) members-at-large for a total of 8 people on the authority. (8 x 40% = 3.2).

2.02 Terms of Office

- The municipal members of the Authority shall be appointed by their respective municipality.
- Members-at-large shall be appointed every four (4) years as per Bylaw No. 3-17.

2.03 Removal

Any member-at-large may be removed from office by an ordinary resolution at a regular or special meeting, requiring an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Authority.

A municipal member can only be removed from office by their respective municipality. The Authority may recommend to a municipality that their representative be removed. Such recommendation requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Authority.

2.04 Vacancy

- In the event of a vacancy of a municipal member, the representative municipality shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy.
- In the event of a vacancy of a member-at-large, the vacancy shall be filled per Bylaw No. 3-17.

2.05 Powers and Duties of the Authority

The powers and duties of the Authority shall be to manage the activities and affairs of the Authority and for such purpose may:

- acquire by purchase, lease, gift, or otherwise any real property that it considers suitable for the purposes of the regional park;
- accept grants from any person, municipality, or organization in the form of money, land, or any other thing that may be useful in the establishment, development, or operation of the regional park;
- raise moneys by the levy of lease fees, concession fees, gate tolls, camping fees, trailer and parking rentals, licences, and other charges on any person or with respect to any property in the regional park;
- employ any persons required for the establishment or operation of the regional park;
- enter into any agreements that it considers necessary to carry out its purposes;
- provide for the administration, operation, control, and use of the regional park; and
- do any other thing that it considers necessary, incidental, or conducive to carry out its purposes or to exercise its powers.

Duties of the Authority should also include:

- executing any other powers and duties as provided for in The Act and The Regulations;
- preparing and updating a long-term plan;
- preparing a plan for park zoning;
- preparing a capital development plan;
- preparing a plan for park maintenance and infrastructure; and
- ensuring that all development of regional park land complies with applicable legislation.

- The chair will be responsible for the general supervision of the affairs and operations of the Authority, will preside at the annual and special meetings of the Authority and at meetings of the Executive Committee, will be the official spokesperson of the Authority, and will perform such other duties as may from time to time be established by the Authority.
- The vice chair will support and assist the chair in all duties and responsibilities and will perform such other duties as may from time to time be established by the chair or the Authority.

2.06 Quorum

Fifty percent plus one (50% +1) of the current number of directors constitutes a quorum at any meeting of the Authority.

2.07 Remuneration

The chair, vice-chair, and all members will receive a per diem for regular and special meetings and will be paid reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties by either their respective municipality or by the Authority.

2.08 Executive Committee

- The Executive Committee shall consist of a minimum of three (3) members of the Authority, including the chairperson who shall be elected by the Authority annually at the first regular meeting following June 15th.
- The Executive Committee would act on behalf of the Authority in an emergent situation and in accordance with Section 5 (Standing Committees) of this Constitution.
- The Executive Committee shall have the ability to call a meeting with limited notice. The Executive Committee shall, following a meeting, inform all members of the Authority of the outcome of said meeting.

2.09 No Alternate Executive Committee Director

No person shall act for an absent Executive Committee director at a meeting of the Executive Committee.

2.10 Conflict of Interest

- A member of the Authority who is party to, or who has a material interest in any person who is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the Authority, shall disclose the nature and extent of his or her interest. Any such contract or proposed contract shall be referred to the Authority for approval even if such contract is one that in the ordinary course of the Authority business would not require approval by the Authority. Any director interested in a contract so referred to the Authority shall not vote on any resolution to approve the same.

- Any director who has a real or perceived conflict of interest with any item of business at a meeting of the Authority shall excuse himself or herself and leave the room at such time as that item is discussed and/or voted upon.

SECTION 3: Members-at-Large (as per Bylaw No. 3-17)

3.01 Introduction

- Authority: Pursuant to subsection 9(3) of The Regional Parks Act, 2013, the Authority hereby allows for the appointment of members-at-large.
- Purpose: To provide for the appointment of interested individuals to participate as members of Thomson Lake Regional Park Authority.

3.02 Appointment Process

- Members-at-large shall be appointed by the Municipal members on the Authority by majority vote every four (4) years as per Bylaw No.3-17.
- Interested individuals shall submit a nomination form to be a member-at-large by June 15. "Interested Individuals" means any individual who is a cabin leaseholder or seasonal site permit holder and who expresses interest in serving on the park authority by signing the prescribed nomination form and who, in the Park Authority's opinion, has the desire and qualifications necessary to contribute time, energy, and expertise to the Park Authority.
- The call for nominations for members-at-large, as appointed by the Authority, shall be advertised in a local paper for a duration of two consecutive publishings as well as on the Thomson Lake Regional Park website (www.thomsonlake.com) prior to the close of nominations .
- The members-at-large appointed shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the total number of members of the Authority.

SECTION 4: Meetings of Thomson Lake Regional Park Authority

4.01 Notice of Authority Meeting

Notice of the time and place of a meeting of the Authority shall be given to each member entitled to vote at the meeting by the following means:

- by mail, courier, or personal delivery to each member entitled to vote, to the directors and the public accountant during a period of three (3) to fifteen (15) days before the day of the meeting.
- by telephonic, electronic, or other communication facility to each member entitled to vote at the meeting, during a period of three (3) to fifteen (15) days before the day of the meeting.

4.02 Calling of Special General Meeting

Unless otherwise permitted in the Act, a special meeting of the Authority may be called by any five (5) directors of the Authority by delivering to the chair a written request, signed by each of the five (5) directors, to convene such a special meeting and setting forth the purpose for which such a meeting is being called. The notice of meeting shall contain sufficient information to permit a reasoned judgement on the decision to be taken.

The special meeting shall be held at such a place as designated by the chair.

4.03 Chair of Meeting

The chair or, in the chair's absence, the vice-chair of the Authority shall be the chair of any meeting of members. If neither of these officers is present, the members who are present and entitled to vote at the meeting shall choose one of their members to chair the meeting.

- A quorum at any meeting of the members shall be fifty percent plus one (50% + 1) of the members entitled to vote at the meeting.
- If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting of members, the members present may proceed with the business of the meeting even if a quorum is not present throughout the meeting.

4.05 Votes to Govern

- At any meeting of members, every matter shall, unless otherwise provided by this Constitution, the bylaws, or by the Act, be determined by a majority of the votes cast on the matter.
- In the case of an equality of votes either on a show of hands or on a ballot or on the results of electronic voting, the chair of the meeting shall not have an original vote, but shall have in his or her capacity the ability to break a tie.

4.06 Electronic Participation and Voting at Physical Meetings

- Any person entitled to attend a meeting of members may participate in the meeting by means of a telephonic, an electronic, or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting.
- A person so participating in a meeting is deemed to be present at the meeting and be entitled to vote.

4.07 Meetings Held Entirely by Electronic Means

- If the members call a meeting, those members may determine that the meeting shall be held entirely by means of a telephonic, an electronic, or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting.
- Any person participating electronically is deemed present at that meeting and entitled to vote.

SECTION 5: Standing Committees

5.01 Committee Creation and Limitation

- The Authority may, by resolution, establish such standing committees as it determines necessary from time to time (e.g., Human Resources, Finance, Governance, Infrastructure/maintenance ...).
- The number of members for each standing committee and the mandate of such standing committee(s) shall be determined by the Authority from time to time unless otherwise established by the provisions of this Constitution.
- Membership on each standing committee shall be served without remuneration, provided that a committee member may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in the performance of his or duties.
- All prospective committee members and the chairperson of each standing committee must first be approved by a majority of the Authority before being entitled to serve thereon.
- The specific duties of each standing committee shall, unless otherwise provided for in this Constitution, be determined by such standing committee in writing and approved by the Authority, and shall include:
 - ⌚ recording/keeping minutes of each meeting,
 - ⌚ preparing an annual budget, if required, for the operations of the committee for presentation to the Authority and subsequent approval by a majority of the Authority,
 - ⌚ meeting at such times as are determined by the chairperson of each standing committee, not less than once per year.
- The Authority may remove any member from any standing committee for any reason upon a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Authority, in which event the Authority may fill such vacancy.

SECTION 6: Executive Committee

6.01 Executive Committee Definition (per Section 2.08)

- The Executive Committee shall consist of a minimum of three (3) directors of the Authority, including the chairperson who shall be elected by the Authority annually at the first regular meeting following June 15th.
- The Executive Committee would act on behalf of the Authority in an emergent situation and in accordance with Section 5 (Standing Committees) of this Constitution.
- The Executive Committee shall have the ability to call a meeting with limited notice. The Executive Committee shall, following a meeting, inform all members of the Authority of the outcome of said meeting.

6.02 Designation of Power

The directors may designate the Executive Committee of the Authority, and specify its duties and delegate to it, powers to manage the activities and affairs of the Authority.

6.03 Members

The Executive Committee of the Authority shall consist of three (3) elected directors in Good Standing.

6.04 Election and Vacancy

The Executive Committee shall be elected by the Authority at the first regular meeting following June 15th.

6.05 Term

The Executive Committee shall hold office for a term of one year. If such member ceases to be a director of the Authority, such member's term shall automatically and simultaneously terminate as at the date such member ceased to be a director of the Authority.

6.06 Removal

A member may be removed from the Executive Committee by Special Resolution of the Authority in a meeting, provided the member has been given notice of and the opportunity to be present and to be heard at the meeting where such a Special Resolution is put to a vote.

6.07 Absentee Voting

There will be no absentee or proxy voting by members.

6.08 Delegation of Duties

In the event that any one of the members of the Authority is absent or unable to act, the Authority may delegate all or any of the powers of such member to any other member for such period as the Authority deems necessary.

6.09 Vacation of Office

If for any reason a member vacates office before expiry of that person's term, the Authority may, by Ordinary Resolution, appoint a member of the Authority to fill the vacancy for the duration of the term.

SECTION 7: Annual General Meeting

7.01 Annual General Meeting Date and Purposes

The Authority shall hold an AGM in each calendar year in the Province of Saskatchewan. The AGM shall be held before July 15 of any year.
